FUNCTIONALITY

At the initial valuation date the LBMA Gold Afternoon Fixing Price is determined as starting value and the cap (122% of the starting value) is fixed. At the final valuation date the LBMA Gold Afternoon Fixing Price is compared to its starting value and one of the following scenarios will apply:

SCENARIO 1: Gold price performance is POSITIVE

Investors participate 1:1 in the performance of the LBMA Gold Afternoon Fixing Price up to a maximum of +22% compared to the starting value. The maximum redemption amount is therefore capped at USD 1,220 per nominal value. Investors do not participate in price increases of the LBMA Gold Afternoon Fixing Price beyond +22%.

SCENARIO 2: Gold price performance remains UNCHANGED or is NEGATIVE

Investors also participate 1:1 in a slightly negative gold price performance. In case of price losses of more than 10% the capital protection of 90% applies at the end of the term. In this case, redemption is effected at 90% of the nominal value at the end of the term (equals USD 900 per nominal value).

PAYOUT PROFILE: EXEMPLARY PRESENTATION

* in comparison to the starting value;  per nominal value

The 90% capital protection by Raiffeisen Centrobank only applies at the end of maturity, i.e. during the term the certificate price may drop below 90%, but at the end of the term the investor obtains 90% of the nominal value in the worst case.

Currency risk/opportunity: This certificate is not currency hedged. If the cash flows from the certificate (repayment) are later converted into another currency, additional risks as well as opportunities arise from possible fluctuations of the currency price in relation to the nominal value.

The approval of the Base Prospectus should not be construed as an endorsement of the financial instrument described herein by the FMA. Additional information on the financial instruments described herein may also be obtained from the respective key information documents (KIDs) that are available for download free of charge on the website of Raiffeisen Centrobank AG (www.rcb.at) by entering the International Securities Identification Number (ISIN) of the respective financial instrument. Certificates are risky instruments of wealth investment. Should the price of the respective underlying instrument of a certificate develop adversely, an investor may lose part or all of his or her invested capital. Certificates react more strongly or weakly to changes of the price of the underlying instrument depending on a number of factors (e.g. volatility or correlation of the underlying instruments, interest, dividends, remaining term, changes in foreign exchange rates) and do not move simultaneously with the underlying. Under certain circumstances the issuer is authorized to redeem the certificates prior to the agreed repayment date.

Issuer Risk/Creditor Participation ("bail-in"): Any payments during or at the end of the term of the certificates depend on the solvency of the issuer ("issuer risk"). Investors are therefore exposed to the risk that Raiffeisen Centrobank AG might be unable to fulfil its payment obligations in respect of the described financial instrument such as in the event of insolvency ("issuer risk") or an official directive ("bail-in"). The resolution authority may also issue such an order before any insolvency proceedings if the issuer is judged to be in crisis. Under these circumstances the resolution authority has wide-ranging powers to take action (so-called "bail-in instruments"). For example, it can reduce the claims of investors in respect of the described financial instruments to zero, terminate the described financial instruments, or convert them into shares of the issuer and suspend investors' rights. More detailed further information is available at www.rcb.at/en/basag. A total loss of the invested capital is possible.

Past performance is no reliable indicator of future results. Please refer to the Base Prospectus for additional disclosures on risks as well as further information. The information presented does not constitute binding tax advice. Tax treatment of investments is dependent on the personal situation of the investor and may be subject to change. As regards tax treatment and impact on the investor's individual tax situation, the investor is advised to consult with a tax advisor. This report is based on the knowledge the persons preparing the document have obtained up to the date of creation. Please note that the legal situation may change due to legislative amendments, tax directives, opinions of financial authorities, jurisdiction etc.

The price of the Capital Protection Certificate is dependent on the underlying's price. Adverse performances of the underlying may cause price fluctuations of the Certificate during the term. If the Capital Protection Certificate is sold prior to the end of the term, there is the risk to incur a substantial loss of the invested capital ("market risk"). The capital protection of 90% of the nominal value applies solely at the end of the term. During the term, the price of the Capital Protection Certificate may drop below the agreed capital protection amount. During the term, the Capital Protection Certificate's price is subject to several influencing factors and needs not develop simultaneously to and in accordance with the underlying's performance. Such influencing factors include e.g. intensity of the underlying's price fluctuations (volatility), interest rates, solvency of the issuer or remaining term. If the Capital Protection Certificate is sold prior to the end of the term, there is the risk to incur a partial loss of the invested capital. Dividends and similar rights associated with the underlying are taken into account when structuring the Capital Protection Certificate and are not paid out.

Financial instruments denominated in a currency that is not the official currency of the country of residence of the potential investor (e.g. denominated in USD) expose the potential investor to a supplementary currency risk that may adversely affect the performance of these financial instruments.
